ORDER

BEFORE THE COURT is the report and recommendation of United States Magistrate Judge Ronald C. Griffin¹ concerning Defendant West Texas Credit Union's Motion to Dismiss Plaintiff's Complaint.² In his report and recommendation, Magistrate Judge Griffin recommends that the Court grant the motion and dismiss the case. Plaintiff timely filed objections to the report and recommendation.³

A party may serve and file specific, written objections to a magistrate judge's findings and recommendations within fourteen days after being served with a copy of the report and recommendation and, in doing so, secure de novo review by the district court.⁴ Because Plaintiff timely objected to the report and recommendation, the Court reviews the report and recommendation de novo. Having done so, the Court overrules Plaintiff's objections and adopts the report and recommendation as its own order.
